BY PRANK G. MENKE. New York, May 8.-When peace was made in the baseball world, aBruey made in the baseball world, aBrney threytass, owner of the fittsburg britans, utered words. They were to the effect that "the Federal plichers were no good." Barney explained the line records of some Fed plichers by secharing that "they ought to Ain't they pitching against bush lenguers." George McConnell was one of the Fed beavers indicted by Barney on the charge of being a minor leaguer. He was with the Chicago Feds Inst year. This year he is with the Chicago Feds Inst year. Well, once again the 1915 transpiring show up Barney. If Barney will take the grand leating averages of the Federal league players to date—both in the National and American league—and owners it with the grand balling averages of the National and American league rivals, he will find that the Federal League rivals are battley to challenge of the Federal League rivals are set of the Federal League rivals and the Federal League rivals are set of the Federal League rivals and the Federal League rivals are set of the Federal League rivals and the Federal League rivals are set of the Federal League rivals and the Federal League rivals are set of the Federal League rivals are rivals are rivals and the Federal League rivals are rivals and the Federal League rivals are rivals and the Federal League rivals are rivals and rivals are rivals and rivals are rivals and rivals are rivals are rivals are rivals and rivals are rivals are rivals.

PRESENTATION of a loving cup from the baseball fans of El Pano to Lieut.-Col. E. V. Smith will be but a small token of the appreciation of the fans for the good baseball served by the Army league last fall, thanks to the efforts of the genial KRACKAJACKS, like the Puritys, were loaded with horseshoes on Sunday and their many errors didn't keep them from winning their Commercial league game.

DUEBLO will have to build a new P ball park for the Rio Grande league, according to John McCloskey, who is now in the Colorado city. He wires that the good news from Amarillo has stirred up the Pueblo fans but that the task of getting started in Pueblo will be no small TONEY and Schneider, of the Reds. pitched some good ball on Sun-day. Toney let the Cardinals down with two hits and no runs for seven innings, when he was taken out to let a pinch-hitter but for him. Big Pete Schneider then took up the pitching and allowed no hits for the rest of the game.

EL PASO fans would like to see some good boxing bouts but they will not stand for the "boxers" who are now hanging around town in the hope of getting bouts in or near this city. If El Paso is to have boxing, let us have it clean and of the best quality. Men who can't "make good" elsewhere are not needed here.

WE don't know whether it's their W fair following or just a case of horseshoes but those Puritys can win ball games when any other team

KRONIGER is the pitcher needed by the Seventh infantry to enable that club to keep up in the Commercial league race. Duncan may round into form but he needs a lot of work to be right. If big Fritz Kroniger is transferred from the artillery to the Seventh, then the soldiers can count on winning a fair share of their games.

ASA PORTER, an El Paso boy, took the big honors of the southwestern intercollegiate track meet at Tucson on Saturday, when he won the centruy dash in the fast time of ten seconds, flat.

BANKERS' Baseball league will do much to keep the many fine athletes working at the local financial institutions in condition for the in-door athletic work next fall. Many of the basketball players come from the local banks and, in the past, the tossers have been a bit slew in rounding into condition. This year they will make it an even 12 months of athletics and be in shape all the "LEFTY" KANTLEHNER, of the Pirates, is certainly pitching good baseball this year and the former Northwestern league star is winning a big percentage of his games. On Sunday, he blanked the Cubs, 1 to 0, letting the Tinkerites down with three hits.

CLAUDE GRAHAM pitched a part of Saturday's game for St. Joseph. The box score is not yet available so it is impossible to get a line on the youngster's work but, of course, St. Joseph loat. And what pitcher, aside from one of the Puritys, can expect to win when the team behind him piles up four
